

ARIZONA BUSINESS AVIATION ASSOCIATION

AZBAA®

MISSION STATEMENT:

The “Arizona Business Aviation Association” (AZBAA®) is an association that works to promote the Business Aviation interests in the State of Arizona. The organization works to enhance communications and represent the safety and professional livelihood of its members.

AZBAA as an organization provides local lobby, education and support activities to advance the interests of Business Aviation growth and well being within the State of Arizona.

AZBAA can provide coordinated consensus and communication services from among its membership of flight crews, aviation technicians, schedulers, life support and service providers to best assure that Business Aviation’s interests are properly represented and reviewed when changes are being considered by the regional FAA offices, local airport management, city council, state legislature groups and US Congressional Committees.

AZBAA is an organization that will strive to improve communications and educate its members regarding changes in regulations, safety and technological issues.

AZBAA will help in the promotion of Business Aviation within the public sector so that citizens can learn to understand the community benefits and the significant role that Business Aviation plays within the local and America’s air transportation system.
